Year: 2025

In addition to the programs and support mechanisms outlined under Indicator 1.3.3, Women University of Azad Jammu & Kashmir, Bagh has introduced targeted initiatives specifically aimed at assisting students who belong to the bottom 20% of household income groups to successfully complete their studies.

The University identifies financially vulnerable students through need-based scholarship applications, income verification documents, and recommendations from relevant committees. These students are provided with enhanced support through a combination of financial assistance, welfare services, and academic support measures. Such initiatives include:

Merit Based Scholarships

Women University of Azad Jammu & Kashmir, Bagh facilitates Honhaar Scholarships and other merit-based financial assistance programs to recognize academic excellence and support talented students in pursuing their higher education. These scholarships are awarded to students who demonstrate outstanding academic performance and, where applicable, financial need.

The Honhaar Scholarship and similar merit-based schemes enable deserving and high-achieving students, particularly those from economically disadvantaged backgrounds, to continue their studies without facing undue financial hardship. Through support from government initiatives, private organizations, and institutional resources, the University ensures that academic merit is rewarded and that talented students are provided with the opportunity to achieve their educational goals. (Annex I)
