5.3.1. Tracking Access Measures Report

The Women University of Azad Jammu and Kashmir, Bagh, was established in 2014 under the Act (available at https://nasirlawsite.com/laws/wuajkb.html and attached as Annex I). According to Clause 5 of this act:

"University open to all Female Gender. - (1) The University shall be open to women students only and no woman shall be denied the privilege of the University on the grounds of religion, race, class, colour or creed."

The University systematically measures and tracks women's application and acceptance rates to ensure compliance with this legislative requirement, as stipulated in the University Act. During the 2025 reporting period, the University is pleased to report a 100% rate for both women's applications and admissions. Every eligible female applicant who applied for admission to a specific program was granted entry, demonstrating the University's firm commitment to ensuring equal access, as safeguarded under the Women University of Azad Jammu and Kashmir Act, 2014.

Our tracking system ensures a transparent and equitable admissions process, reflected in a 100% acceptance rate that fulfills our legal obligations and supports women's academic and professional aspirations. This achievement underscores our commitment to an inclusive community where women from all backgrounds can thrive, and reaffirms our role as a university of equal opportunity and empowerment.
